

Impressing the Older Kids

Jack is hanging out at his friend Leo's house. Leo's older sister has some of her friends over and the older girls are drinking beer. They ask Jack and Leo if they want to try a sip of beer. The boys have never tried alcohol before but want to impress the older girls. What would you do if you were in Jack and Leo's situation?

Use the FACE Decision-Making Model to help you make the safest decision.

Feel

1. How would I feel in this situation?

2. Why would I feel this way?

3. When have I felt this way before?

Assess

4. What are my choices?

Choose

5. What is the safest choice I can make?

Evaluate

6. How would my choice impact myself or others?

7. Who could I talk to about the choice I made and how I was feeling?
