Different Types of Relationships

1. Pick 3 different types of relationships from the list below and write each one in the boxes below.
2. Choose two people you know that have one of these relationships and add their names.
3. Now look at each relationship. What do these people gain from these relationships? (This can be anything from basic needs, like food and shelter, to emotional needs or social enjoyment.)

Examples of different types of relationships:
