

Impressing the Older Kids

Jack is hanging out at his friend Leo's house. Leo's older sister has some of her friends over and the older girls are drinking beer. They ask Jack and Leo if they want to try a sip of beer. The boys have never tried alcohol before but want to impress the older girls. What should Jack and Leo do in this situation?

Use the FACE Decision-Making Model to help them make the safest decision.

Feel

1. How might Jack feel in this situation?

2. Why might Jack feel this way?

3. When might Jack have felt this way before?

Assess

4. What are Jack's choices?

Choose

5. What is the safest choice Jack can make?

Evaluate

6. How might Jack's choice impact himself or others?

7. Who could Jack talk to about the choice he made and how he was feeling?
